Urology

FOR BEGINNERS

Urology for Beginners is a two day course designed for newly appointed Specialist Registrars.

The faculty will share hints and tricks for surviving as a trainee on the wards, in theatre and during RITA assessments.

A large part of the course will be dedicated to hands on sessions showing you how to get the best out of your time in theatre with advice on prostate, bladder and stone surgery.

Olympus experts will show you how to get the best out of your equipment and share technical insights you can't get from textbooks

The course will be held on Thursday 13 - Friday 14 May 2010 at Olympus KeyMed, Southend-on-Sea.

The course fee is £75.00 and this will cover accommodation overnight on Thursday 13 May 2010, course dinner and all meals and refreshments during the course.

Faculty

Jonathan Glass, Daron Smith, Bijan Khoubehi and Simon Bott are Consultant Urological Surgeons with specialist interests spanning across endourology, laparoscopic urology and oncology as well as general urology, and they can still remember the challenges of being a urological trainee. Khurshid Ghani is an SpR nearing the end of his specialist training and looking forward to his consultant appointment.

Please return completed application forms with course fee by 12 April 2010
